

And the George Coxes of 139 Barnett street, Ventura, are feeling pretty smug, too, over the birth of a daughter, their first child, PEGGY ANNE COX. Peggy Anne, whose daddy is stationed on the submarine U. S. S. Tunny, weighed in at Port Hueneme naval hospital at 7 pounds 10 ounces, May 31.

Some kids have all the luck. Just look at all the grandparents Peggy Anne has, but I guess that'll help make up for having no brothers and sisters yet. There's her grandmother Mrs. Margaret Cox in Merced; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. David Beardsley in San Rafael; great grandmother Mrs. Helen Roller in Venice, and great grandmother Mrs. Emma Campbell in Bakersfield.
