

Oxnard Editor Tells Of Submarine Trip

George Grimes, editor of the Oxnard Press-Courier, told members of the Downtown Ventura Lions club yesterday of "Three Days on a Submarine."

Grimes, only civilian aboard the submarine Tunny during a January trip from Port Huene to Mare island, told of the maneuvers, diving and operation of the vessel.

Joe Hyde, club president, announced names of Lions who were to work at the annual rummage sale today and tomorrow. Proceeds will be used to purchase playground equipment for the plaza.
