

College Group Guests Aboard Missile Sub

A group of 26 college students who work during the summer at Point Mugu naval air missile test center recently were guests aboard the missile-launching submarine U. S. S. Tunny.

Purpose of the tour was to illustrate the importance of design in equipment for naval use. The summer student program is designed to interest future engineers and scientists with the types of work being carried on at the base.

Clipped By:

ROlszewski
Sat, Feb 8, 2020